

It's outrageous that Sinclair Broadcasting can use its media muscle to pre-empt scheduled programs to air a Kerry smear "documentary" days before the election. This does nothing for the public good, a role they are charged with since they get to use public airwaves for free. Please take action and prevent this from happening, or at least force the company to air an opposite opinion piece either preceding or following this piece.